Career Services & Professional Development Information

The Career Services and Professional Development Office provides comprehensive career and professional development services and resources to assist La Verne Law students and alumni in achieving their career goals. The CSPDO offers one-on-one career counseling sessions to provide personalized assistance and ready students as they seek positions during law school as well as post-graduate employment opportunities. Each year, the CSPDO brings practicing attorneys to campus to speak and provide insight on specific areas of law. The office also hosts skill-building workshops on resume and cover letter preparation, successful interviewing techniques, job search strategies, negotiating job offers, networking, researching employers, and more.

Employment and Networking Opportunities

Employment opportunities with law firms, government agencies, corporate legal departments, public interest organizations, judicial clerkships, and alternative career options are provided through our online job posting website, on-campus interview events, and at career fairs sponsored in coordination with the Law School Career Advisors of Southern California (LSCA) consortium. The CSPDO recently launched a Mentor Program and an online E-Mentor Program, which partners students with practicing attorneys in the field of law in which the student expresses interest; and a Mock Interview Program where students are able to personally visit law offices of prominent attorneys and practice interviewing skills.
